

MOHAMMAD KHAIRUL SHALEH MD ASARI

Dr. Mohammad Khairul Shaleh is a Bachelor of Mechanical Engineering graduate, and he is an engineering management practitioner with more than 23 years of experiences in the industry. He has worked with a Japanese Multi-national Company (MNC) for more than 13 years, which he practically has first-hand expertise with Lean Management and JIT System. Besides that, he also responsible for Environment Management System (EMS) and cost-saving initiative in the company. For the last ten years, Dr. Khairul Shaleh has involved actively in corporate management and occupational safety and health consultancy. His obsession in this field has lead him to continue his study in Master in Technology Management, Master in IT Entrepreneurship, and Ph.D. in Occupational Safety and Health (OSH) majoring in Behavior-Based Safety.

Professionally, he is a member of the Board of Engineers Malaysia (BEM), Institute of Engineers Malaysia (IEM), and Federation of Investment Managers Malaysia (FIMM). He is also a qualified, certified trainer under NIOSH, HRDF, and CIDB. He is also has been trained in several accredited programs such as Chemical Hazardous Risk Assessor (CHRA), Noise Monitoring Assessor (NMA), and a qualified MSPO auditor under MPOB.

Also, Dr Khairul Shaleh is actively involved in academic supervision for the Master in Occupational Safety and Health Program project from OUM. Most of the topics in his control regarding Industrial Safety and Health Management. This has exposed him to a lot of knowledge related to Occupational Safety and Health in many types of industries, including oil and gas and general manufacturing companies.