

AHMAD FADZLI ABDUL KONON

Mr Ahmad Fadzli is a passionate communicator who strives to help people develop their empathy skills to improve professional relationships. He specializes in Workforce Performance Skills, and this is a focus chiefly to help elevate and enhance leadership and professional development within the workplace.

To better provide stimulating, vital, and meaningful information and skills to his participants, he is currently pursuing a Master in Management diligently at Open University Malaysia.

Ahmad Fadzli has 12 years of excellent experience in learning and development, and this includes two years as a Business Coach under Institut Keusahawanan Negara (INSKEN) and IMProud IRDA, where he delivered various learning programs to entrepreneurs on many different levels. On his journey to becoming an accomplished trainer, he has abundantly gained more knowledge and skills in interpersonal, intercultural, and written communication.

Ahmad Fadzli has successfully delivered coaching and training for more than 50,000 participants within these 12 years for various types of industries and backgrounds, namely PNB Commercial, Telekom, TDK Lambda, Honda Malaysia, STMicroelectronics, Natural Oleochemicals, MMI Industries, and Pertama Springroll.

With Fadzli's never-ending quest to help develop effective learning solutions, clients can rest assured knowing that they can increase the clarity of inter-departmental communication, develop visionary and strategic leadership, create targeted and impactful presentations as well as diligently improve team collaboration.