

DR VINOD NAIR

Dr Vinod Nair is a practicing Medical Doctor and Occupational Health Doctor with more than ten years of experience in health consultation, medical surveillance and occupational health.

Dr Vinod's forte in training includes medical related topics such as diabetes, hypertension, heart disease & etc and also occupational health related topics such as noise conservation program, HIRAC, ergonomics & etc. Not forgetting the importance of mental health, he also conducts training on stress management, mental health disorders, drug & alcohol abuse and others. As a trained doctor & BLS trainer, he is also able to conduct First Aid & Basic Life Support (BLS) training and certification.

Being a natural speaker, besides training, he regularly provides safety and health-related talks, seminars and conducts workshops in schools, health camps and local clinics, including Klinik Kesihatan. He has conducted multiple webinars and face-to-face training courses for reputable corporate clients including Cargil, Music Tribe, Honda, DHL, Prasarana, KLCC, PremChem; to name a few.

Dr Vinod Nair graduated with MBBS Degree from the Asian Institute of Medicine, Science and Technology (AIMST) University. He is a certified and experienced Occupational Health Doctor (OHD) with Medical Review Officer (MRO) Certification from NIOSH, Malaysia and the Academy of Occupational & Environmental Medicine Malaysia (AOEMM), respectively. He also completed TTT program with NIOSH and is a certified HRDCorp Trainer.

Dr Vinod is also a Certified Ergonomic Trained Person (ETP) and a Certified Basic Life Support (BLS) Trainer. To add to Emergency Care, he has also completed Advance Cardiopulmonary Life Support (ACLS) and Malaysian Trauma and Life Support (MTLS). He also completed EX000 by IECEX which is an international body that governs hazardous & explosive environment.